October's Speaker:

Lisa Foster, owner of Parillume, is a leadership and team development speaker, consultant and coach. She empowers dynamic leaders and teams who want to leverage strengths and personalities to improve engagement, communication and their bottom line. Her Shine From Your Original DesignSM program – which applies results from CliftonStrengths, Myers Briggs and the Enneagram – has benefited individuals, families, professional teams and community groups throughout the US.

October's Topic:

Shift Your Leadership Lens: Practical Tools to Turn Conflict into Collaboration

We all wear a lens colored by our personalities – our fears, motives, and filters. What's possible, as leaders, if we shift to a lens of clarity and compassion? This transformational talk disguised as a one-woman show teaches you practical tools to leverage your superpowers, mitigate your kryptonite, and enable you and your team to contribute at their highest level. Learn how to Accept, Articulate and Apply™ the lens of strengths and personality to resolve conflict and improve communication, engagement, and bottom-line results!

Key Outcomes:

- Learn how to create a culture of compassion, honor and impact rather than criticism, judgment and indifference on your team

- Understand and capitalize on the power of motivation to resolve internal and external conflicts

Discover a simple, 3-step process through to cracking the code on any, real-life challenge: Accept, Articulate and Apply

All luncheon online registrations will be available through 5PM on the Thursday before each event, at which time the registration link will be removed from the website. We all carry around a supercomputer in our pocket, but with hundreds of thousands of apps to choose from, it's sometimes hard to find the ones that really help us with our work. These apps will change your entire life, save you hours of work, and even reduce your stress.

- Presented by Chuck Kelley, Owner - Eclipse Property Management

B. "Coming Out on Top: How to build a slam-dunk case for small-claims court without the assistance of an attorney"

This session will walk attendees through the necessary steps to properly analyze, organize, build, and plead your case in small-claims court.

- Presented by Jim Lagan, 2019 President-Elect - Denver NARPM

C. "The Science Behind a Maintenance Experience"

We deep dive into the numbers of what creates a positive (or negative) maintenance experience. Know the levers you can adjust to make a significant impact within your operation.

- Presented by Drea Poole,

Break & Vendor Fair 10:50 AM - 11:10 AM

Breakout Sessions II 11:10 AM - 12:00 PM

A. "How to Survive a Real Estate Commission Audit"

You've Been Selected for an Audit by the Division of Real Estate. You'll hear my story of surviving an 18-month audit and investigation, the common pitfalls for property managers, and how to be prepared when your time comes.

- Presented by Brandon Scholton, 2019 Secretary - Denver NARPM

B. "Safety for the Property Manager"

Safety is a growing concern in the Property Management industry. Do you know how to keep yourself safe in the office, in the car, and during showings? Do your office policies and procedures help to keep your staff safe? We'll discuss all of this and provide hands-on instruction on fending off an attacker.

- Presented by Cookie Hooper, MPM, RMP, Past-President Denver NARPM

C. "Unleash Your Pet Policies"

A discussion of industry best practices to help mitigate your risks and increase bottom line revenue when dealing with not pets, pets, and assistance animals.

Breakout Sessions III (2-Hours CE) 1:45 PM - 3:45 PM

A. "Owner Expectations and the Property Management Agreement"

This class will take a close look at what Owners expect and how your property management agreement is the key to meeting those expectations. From initial consultation for new management to moving seasoned clients to a new management style or fee structure Rob's interactive teaching style will make this class lively and yet still get you key clauses that you should consider putting in your management agreement too.

- Presented by Rob Lynde, MPM®, Owner of Milestone Real Estate Services

B. "Evaluating Security Deposit Issues Like a Pro"

A lively discussion of how complicated move-out statements and tracking the depreciation of things like appliances, carpets, and surfaces continue to be a thorn in the side of many landlords. The presentation will cover the necessities of properly handling Security Deposits and how to avoid losing money by "Staying on the Right Side of Zero" when it comes to withholding deposits.

- Presented by Pete Muccio, Esq. - Attorney with Tschetter Hamrick Sulzer

C. "How to Help Your Clients Build a Portfolio of 10 Rental Properties"

One of the most common goals of a property investor is to build a large portfolio and generate passive income for retirement. While we hear this goal a lot, very few investors actually achieve this goal and many end up never even buying their first property. This presentation will show you 4 different ways to acquire properties and give you a step-by-step business plan that you can use to purchase and build your portfolio. We'll walk you through this business plan to show you how to start from scratch and build up a portfolio of 10 properties so you can retire.

- Presented by Joe Massey

Denver Chapter of NARPM Minutes of the Board Meeting

Tuesday, April 23rd, 2019

Annual Planning Meeting

In attendance: Sondra Welsh, Geff Kempself, Tony Cline, Bill Martin, Ben Parham, Brandon Scholten

Meeting was called to order

Board approved changing meeting length to 30 minutes going forward, so it will begin at 9:30 for the rest of the year.

Ratified minutes for 2019 Narpn Planning Retreat

Discussed member dues unpaid for 2019. Sondra will follow up with those who haven't paid.

Board discussed the possibility of a Colorado Narpn Chapter. Board agrees that there is no benefit to our members in adding a state chapter, because it threatens the funding sources for our chapter, while not increasing the political pull of the collective Narpn chapters in the state. We agreed to open up a dialogue with those taking initiative on the state chapter.

Meeting was adjourned

In attendance: Ben Parham, Sondra Welsh, Geff Kempself, Tony Cline, Bill Martin, Jim Iagan, Brandon Scholten, Marc Cunningham, Devin Bewley, Laura Freeze, Rocky Germano

Meeting was called to order

Devin - display boards outside of entryway can be utilized

Laura - she has been reaching out to former members

Ben - New website is up and running, vendors and members are updated. Site is great overall but support is not very good.

Rocky - he and tony had lunch with Alex Yoder and Nancy Burke. Nancy pitched what she does and what it would cost to have her represent NarpM. It was not within our budget to seriously consider. We discussed if we should continue to give $5,000 to apartment association, and if they represent our voice.

Sondra - covered upcoming classes.

Marc - Brad Larsen coming in September

Denver Chapter of NARPM Minutes of the Board Meeting

Tuesday, June 25th, 2019

In attendance: Tony Cline, Bill Martin, Jim Iagan, Brandon Scholten

Meeting was called to order

Minutes approved for May

Discussion of financials - noted that education income is low, but this is because education is pushed to later in the year.

Discussed filling Treasurer or Education chair for next year as Sondra wants to only do one of these. Discussed other possible nominations for next year due, as they are due in September.

No updates on progress of state chapter.

Discussed the possibility of having Nancy Burke in a role as expert consultant.

Conference for 2020 - need to book hotel and get people in charge of planning. Too many people communicated with the hotel last year, so will be limited to 1 or 2 this year. Discussed dates of conference (May 6th, 7th, 13th, or 14th). Rebecca checking availability at hotel and will email with leadership group.

Denver Chapter of NARPM Committee Chair Meeting

Tuesday, August 26th, 2019

In attendance: Geff Kempself, Tony Cline, Bill Martin, Ben Parham, Jim Iagan, Brandon Scholten, Tamira Trujillo, Rocky Germano

Meeting was called to order

We discussed the Apartment Association affiliation, and if the $5,000 annual gift is worth getting access to their luncheon meetings. Rocky shared the value he and Bob Aldridge have seen from their time being involved. We voted on giving our $5,000 contribution in 2019 and continuing to evaluate for next year. There was also discussion about how to better relay the info and value to our members.

Tamira gave an update on how to give value to vendors. She met with Rebecca and they further discussed how best to do monthly sponsorships and will finalize their suggestions at the planning meeting in November.

Laura Freese - brief update on progress of Christmas party. Working with Tamira and Irina to get silent auction items.

Ben said the website continues to be effective but the support is terrible. They are in the process of giving him more access to limit the amount of support needed from national.
