Dear Prospective Texas Style 2016 Sponsor:

On behalf of the Program and Planning Committee of PROPERTY MANAGEMENT TEXAS STYLE, it is my privilege to invite you and your company to participate as a sponsor/exhibitor at this year's event to be held Friday, February 5 in Austin, TX.

What is PROPERTY MANAGEMENT TEXAS STYLE?

Each year, NARPM members from around the state gather in Austin, Texas for two days of meetings offering educational CECs for certification, discussion of Legislative and Legal updates affecting our industry, and a full day of networking bringing in speakers from around the state to discuss Best Practices, TREC and TAR updates, and share ideas or discuss issues faced by other chapters here in Texas.

Historically, over 125 attendees are at the Friday sessions and we offer table top displays and sponsor testimonial opportunities to get you in front of a broader audience than you may be limited to at local monthly meetings. Attendees come from Austin, San Antonio, Dallas, Houston, and other areas around the state. All are involved, in some way, with the management of Residential Properties.
