MEMBERSHIP QUALIFICATIONS & DUES

Professional Members must be engaged in the management of residential properties as an agent for others and licensed in those states that require licensing, and agree to abide by the professional and ethical standards of NARPM®. Professional Members will pay dues in the amount of $295 less a new member discount of $50, making the effective dues amount $245. Includes subscription to Residential Resource.

- I am in a state requiring a license; I have included a copy of my license.
 I am not in a state requiring a license; I hereby certify that all membership requirements are currently being met.
Are you in a tier office? Yes No If yes, please mark tier level Tier 1 Tier 2

International Members will pay dues in the amount of $295 less a new member discount of $50, making the effective dues amount $245. Includes subscription to Residential Resource. Licensing is currently not required for International Members. International Members are non-voting members of NARPM®.

Support Staff Members must be acting in the role of support in the office of a Professional Member, not acting in a capacity requiring licensure in that state. Support Staff Members are non-voting members of NARPM®. Support Staff Members will pay dues in the amount of $175 less a new member discount of $50, making the effective dues amount $125. Includes subscription to Residential Resource.

A full year of membership dues must be paid initially. The fee will be prorated in the second year of membership to reflect the partial first year and be due on January 1 after joining. Dues are nontransferable and nonrefundable. NARPM® dues are not deductible as a charitable contribution for federal tax purposes, but may be deductible as a business expense. Under IRS rules IR-93-98 and notice 93-55, the federal government requires exempt organizations to estimate the percentage of a member's dues utilized for lobbying purposes and not deductible as a business expense. It has been determined that 100% of your NARPM® dues is deductible as a business expense.
