What Is a Virtual Event?

After much discussion, NARPM has made the difficult decision to cancel the in-person Convention and transition to a fully virtual event still being held October 20-22, 2020. NARPM is very excited to be able to still offer you the same innovative and timely content from presenters, impactful networking with industry peers, and the space to connect with property managers from across the country.

The Value for Your Business

Sharing the same great content in a digital space, we're proud to offer the virtual convention at discounted rates. With your virtual registration, you'll receive the following benefits:
