  - 1. Notice of Regular Meeting: With the advice and consent of the president, the secretary shall notify all members of the executive committee of the date, time and place by regular letter mailed to each member of the committee.

- 2. Waiver of Notice: Attendance by any member of the executive committee at a regularly scheduled meeting at which date, time and place is established for the next meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of the next regular meeting of the committee.
- 3. Electronic Meetings: If approved by the chapter executive committee, meetings can be held electronically in order to conduct the business of the chapter.

Section B: Location

All meetings of the chapter shall be held within the geographic definition of the chapter. All meetings of the executive committee shall be held within the geographic definition of the chapter unless otherwise waived by all the members of the executive committee. Annual meeting location of the Chapter shall be approved by the Executive Committee.

Section C: Quorum

- 1. A Majority of the executive committee officers in attendance shall constitute a quorum.
- 2. Quorum: A quorum to conduct business by the members shall be 10% of the members eligible to vote at a regularly scheduled meeting. A chapter event can be held without a quorum but no business can be conducted

Section D: Simple Majority Vote

All actions and decisions of the executive committee shall be made official by simple majority vote of the members present at any regular or special meeting of the committee, unless otherwise precluded by law.

ARTICLE VII: Committees

Section A: Appointment

Except as otherwise stated in these bylaws or the bylaws of the national association, the chairpersons and members of all sub-committees shall be appointed by the president with the advice and consent of the executive committee.

Section B: Responsibilities

Committees shall undertake such responsibilities as are identified in these bylaws or as may be assigned to them by the president with the advice and consent of the executive committee. No sub-committee may take any action on behalf of or representative of the chapter unless specifically authorized by the executive committee.

Section C: Creation and Dissolution

The president, with the advice and consent of the executive committee, shall have the authority to create and dissolve sub-committees according to the needs of the chapter.

ARTICLE VIII: Code of Ethics & Standards of Professionalism.

Acknowledgment and Enforcement

The Code of Ethics and Standards of Professionalism shall be approved by the National NARPM® Board of Directors.

As a condition of membership, all Professional Members of NARPM® must complete a NARPM® Code of Ethics training. Each Professional Member of the association is required to complete a NARPM® approved ethics training either in classroom or through other means within ninety (90) days of making an application, as approved by the board of directors of NARPM® National. The association shall design a new course of instruction each four-year period to meet the requirement of membership.

Failure to satisfy this requirement within ninety (90) days of making application to the association will: result in the membership of the Conditional Member being suspended. If a Conditional Member has not taken the new member ethics class during their first year (12 months) of application, they will be terminated and will need to reapply for new membership.

Section A: Acknowledgment

Each applicant for membership in the Association shall read and be familiar with the Association Code of Ethics and Standards of Professionalism. Continual adherence to the Code is mandatory for membership in the Association. Professional Members shall have successfully completed a course of instruction on the NARPM® Code of Ethics.

Section B: Enforcement

The Board of Directors shall be responsible for enforcement of the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professionalism. Should a complaint be filed with the Board, the Board is charged with being fair and equitable to both Complainant and Respondent. The complaint will be turned over the Professional Standards Sub-Committee to investigate violations. The Committee shall report its findings to the Board; the Board will make a determination on the charges and take appropriate action.

Section C: Chapter Charter

A Chapter Charter is granted by the National Association of Residential Property Managers, Inc, only upon the acknowledgment that the chapter members shall:

- 1. Be familiar with Code: Read and be familiar with the applicable Code of Ethics to which continual adherence is mandatory for continuation of a Chapter Charter and individual membership.
- 2. Be Unopposed to Application: By receipt of the Chapter Charter, the chapter does hereby formally agree to not take any legal action(s) against the national association, its officer(s), director(s), committee chairperson(s), committee member(s) or the chapter, its officer(s), sub-committee chairperson(s) or sub-committee member(s) for any prescribed action identified by these bylaws or the bylaws of the national association taken for the purpose of enforcing the applicable Code of Ethics and Standards of Professionalism.

Section D: Enforcement

It is the duty of the President of the chapter to report all violations to the national association's Code of Ethics and Standards of Professionalism to the national association's grievance committee.

ARTICLE IX: Financial Considerations

Section A: Calendar Year

The chapter's financial year shall be a calendar year.

Section B: Chapter Dues

A The Chapter may charge annual and prorated dues, subject to approval by the national association, as outlined below:

- 1. Payable: Dues for local chapters are payable no later than January 1 of each year.
- 2. Non-payment of Dues: Failure to pay the annual chapter dues within 45 days after the first day of the year shall result in automatic termination of chapter membership unless there are extenuating circumstances.
- 3. Member Dues: The amount of the Chapter dues for all members and each class of membership shall be established annually by the board of directors during the budgeting process.
- 4. Affiliate dues: The amount of local chapter dues for Affiliate dues shall be established annually by the board of directors during the budgeting process. The chapter will charge dues to National Affiliate members.
- 5. Late Fees: Any payment received after the due date will be considered late, and a late fee will be assessed. The Board of Directors must approve any schedule of late fees or returned check fees during the budgeting process.

Section C: Special Assessments

Special Assessments may be established by the executive committee and imposed upon its chapter members and/or affiliate members for a specific funding purpose. The purpose and amount of any special assessment shall be announced at a regular or special meeting of the chapter prior to the imposition of such an assessment. No more than one special assessment may be imposed in any calendar year.

Section D: Budget

The treasurer, in conjunction with the executive committee, shall prepare an itemized budget of income and expenses for each calendar year. The budget shall not exceed the chapter's ability to pay the same and shall be approved by the [chapter name] Executive Committee or Board of Directors.

Section E: Non-Binding

The chapter shall not have any authority to financially obligate or bind the National Association of Residential Property Managers, Inc., for any reason.

ARTICLE X: Proposals and Procedures for Amending

Section A: Proposals

Amendments to these bylaws may be proposed by any chapter member or board of director of the National Association of Residential Property Managers, Inc., at any time through a letter addressed to the executive committee and presented or mailed to the secretary. Any proposal shall be studied by the entire executive committee or an officer of the executive committee or by a sub-committee created and/or assigned for that purpose as appointed by the president.

Section B: Procedure for Amending

The entity assigned for the purpose of reviewing proposed Bylaw revisions shall present the proposed amendment to the executive committee with its findings and proposed recommendations of actions. A two-thirds majority of the Executive Committee is necessary in order to amend these bylaws.

Once approved by the Chapter Executive Committee, amendments shall be subject to approval by the board of directors of the National Association of Residential Property Managers, Inc., prior to their implementation or adoption by the chapter and a final copy of these bylaws are to remain on file at the national's office.

ARTICLE XI: Miscellaneous

Section A: Invalidity

The invalidity of any provision of these bylaws shall not impair or affect in any manner the validity, enforceability or effect of the remainder of these bylaws.

Section B: Waiver

No provision of these bylaws shall be deemed to have been abrogated or waived by reason of any failure to enforce the same, regardless of the number of violations or breaches which may have occurred.

Section C: Hold Harmless and Indemnify

The chapter shall hold harmless and indemnify members of the executive committee, officer(s), sub-committee chairperson(s) and sub-committee members, as well as the national association, its board of directors, officers, chairpersons and committee members who are acting within the scope of their responsibilities, duties or these bylaws.

Section D: State Laws

These bylaws may be amended to conform and comply with the laws, statutes, rules and regulations of the governing bodies of local, county and/or state authorities that have jurisdiction. Should amendments to these bylaws be required by [insert state name] state law, Chapter shall notify the National Association of said amendments but no further action will be required.

Section E. Sexual Harassment

The National Association of Residential Property Managers (NARPM®) has adopted a zero-tolerance police toward discrimination and all forms of unlawful harassment, including but not limited to sexual harassment. This zero-tolerance policy means that no form of unlawn discriminatory or harassing conduct by or towards any employee, member, vendor or other person in the workplace and at our events/meetings will be tolerated.

NARPM® is committed to enforcing its policy at all levels within the Association. Any officer, director, volunteer, member, or employee who engaged in prohibited discrimination or harassment will be subject to discipline, up to and including immediate discharge from employment or dismissal from the association.

Reporting Without Fear of Retaliation: No Association member will be retaliated against for reporting harassment. This no-retaliation policy applies whether a good faith complaint of harassment is well founded or ultimately determined to be unfounded. No Association officer, director, volunteer, or member is authorized, or permitted, to retaliate or to take any adverse action whatsoever against anyone for reporting unlawful harassment, or for opposing any other discriminatory practice.

Section E: Dissolution

Should the membership vote by majority to dissolve the operations of the Texas Hill Country Chapter, all remaining funds in the treasury will be sent to the National Association of Residential Property Managers.

Second Nature's Evan Howard presents...

Resident Benefit Packages

FILTER DELIVERY

NARPM National Affiliate of the Year for 2018, 2019 and 2020, Second Nature, will be speaking on a hot industry topic: the Resident Benefit

Second Nature has elevated its level of service offered and is partnering with PKRY9 not only make sure filters are being changed, but to assist Property Managers in the quest of staying competitive and relevant by supporting the design and deployment of a full benefits package. Evan will be walking through the 4 essential questions a Resident Benefit Package and how it helps create -$120 +/door/year. This process will help you discern if this is a move for your business in 2021 and an action plan if so.

With Second Natures RBP, you will be able to offer Filter Delivery, Utility hookup concierge, rental rewards points program and credit reporting to your residents.

The best part, instead of being another "to-do" it is "done for you." Second Nature has a staff full of ex-Property Managers who have crafted Texas approved owner communication, renewal language, resident move in packets, checklists and best practices_you don't have to recreate anything!

Second Nature's professional Property Management team will also act as your RBP-Super Computer, making sure all data management and administration is taken care of for you remotely (for every major PM software). Your staff will not have 5 vendor portals to operate! Second Nature does it for you! Can you say Maximized Operational Efficiency, Profitability, Time Savers and Improved Resident Behavior all in one little package?

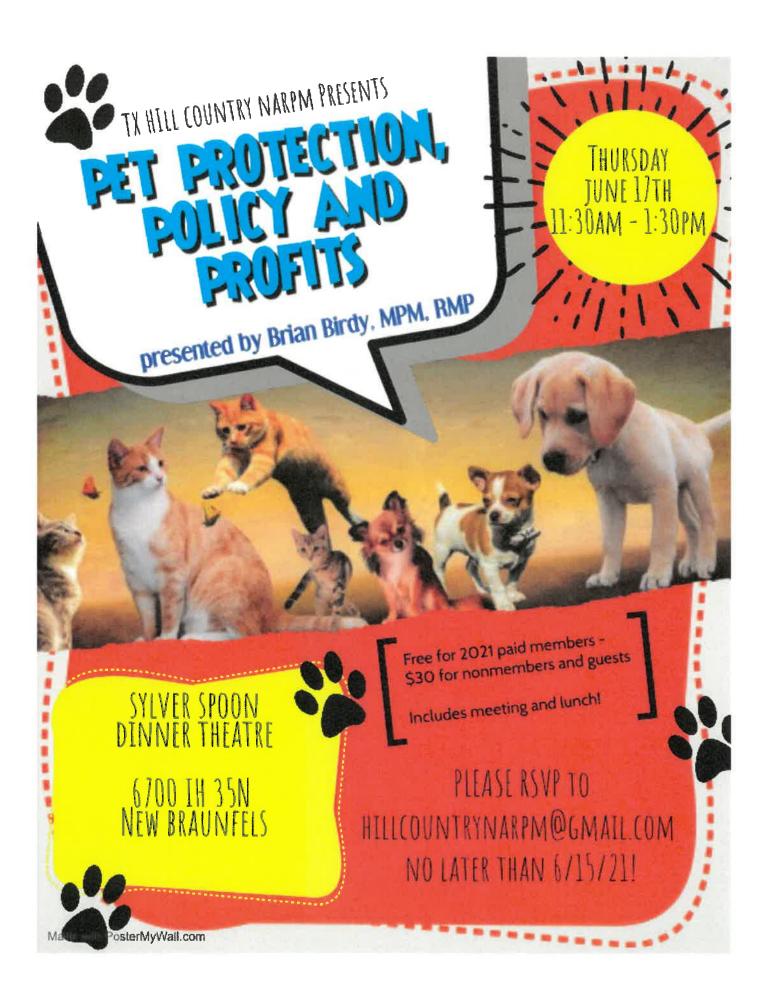

Includes meeting, guest speaker presentation and lunch! RSVP via email to hillcountrynarpm@gmail.com.

Date: April 15, 2021 Time: 9:11am

Call to order: By Joyce Zimdahl

Roll Call: Joyce Zimdahl, Ronnah Nalley-Stabenow, Christine Felux, Breauna DeLong

Board approved the agenda for the meeting. Board also voted and approved having executive board meetings outside of the chapter area.

Treasure Report: No money has been collected since the start of the year. Christine will have total bank balance at next meeting.

Secretary Report: Breauna to send out flier for April 2021 meeting.

Educational Report: Discussion on bringing in speakers that will excite members to come to meetings. Plan on having a Pet Screening speaker come to talk about service animal and ESA changes.

New Business: Christine to edit invoices and send out to all members for the 2021 year. Board voted and approved changes and updates made to Bylaws. For 2022, invoices will be sent out in November 2021 and due by January 31, 2022. President-Elect to read Ethics at the beginning of each chapter meeting.

Discussion: 2-3 community service events in the process of being planned for this year. Would like to do some sort of collection event with boxes in New Braunfels offices to donate (either school supplies drive or donations to a children's shelter).

Adjourn: 10:19am
