

Sometimes it's nice to have an excuse to work on your victory dance. Sometimes it's not. Eliminate stressful rental situations. A NARPM® property manager can coordinate: unpleasant discoveries after a tenant leaves; rent collection; repairs; cleaning; painting; difficult situations with tenants; interviewing and screening prospective tenants; serving legal notices or handling evictions; and more. Knowing your property is well-managed means you can relax and concentrate on other things. NARPM® members know first-hand the unique challenges of managing rental property in today's constantly changing economic and legislative environment. They know how to manage those challenges to everyone's benefit.

Bad Tenant FINALLY MOVE OUT?

www.narpm.org/why-use-one

National Association of Residential Property Managers

