MEMBERSHIP QUALIFICATIONS & DUES

Student Members will pay dues in the amount of $85. Student Members must be enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate field of study. This student application and subsequent renewal dues must be accompanied with a copy of a valid student ID card and a class schedule from the college/university where applicant is enrolled. Should a Student Member secure employment or work as an independent contractor for a company providing property management services, their Student Membership is terminated and the student will be offered the appropriate Support Staff or Professional Membership. Students who hold an active real estate license do not qualify and must hold a Professional Membership. Student Members are non-voting members of NARPM®, and may not use the NARPM® logo.

Enclosed is a valid student ID and a class schedule from the college/university where applicant is enrolled.

Academic Members will pay dues in the amount of $85. An Academic Member is an instructor who provides classroom instruction for any real estate or property management course at any accredited college/university or real estate school. The instructor must provide a copy of the course title they teach. The instructor may not be employed or be an independent contractor with any company providing property management services. All NARPM® materials are to be used for the sole use of classroom instruction and promoting NARPM®. Academic Members are non-voting members of NARPM®, and may not use the NARPM® logo.

Enclosed is a copy of the real estate or property management course taught by the applicant.

Benefits for Student & Academic Members include: Web access to the Residential Resource; member rates for NARPM® designation classes, conferences, conventions, and other events; networking opportunities; local chapters; and more.

A full year of membership dues must be paid initially. The fee will be prorated in the second year of membership to reflect the partial first year and be due on January 1 after joining. Dues are nontransferable and nonrefundable. NARPM® dues are not deductible as a charitable contribution for federal tax purposes, but may be deductible as a business expense. Under IRS rules IR-93-98 and notice 93-55, the federal government requires exempt organizations to estimate the percentage of a member's dues utilized for lobbying purposes and not deductible as a business expense. It has been determined that 100% of your NARPM® dues is deductible as a business expense.
