

Nominating Committee Application

NARPM® is seeking qualified and interested members to serve on the Nominating Committee to select the leaders of NARPM® for next year. Listed below are some of the committee duties, requirements, and commitment expectations.

- √ The Nominating Committee is responsible for proposing a slate of candidates to serve on the NARPM® Board of Directors.
- √ The NARPM® Bylaws require one (1) individual from each of the seven (7) national regions to serve on the Nominating Committee. To find your region visit <https://www.narpm.org/about/regions>
- √ The regional representation ensures the interests of a wide variety of members are represented when proposing a slate of Directors.
- √ Service on the Nominating Committee requires absolute confidentiality, commitment, and anonymity.
- √ This important committee assignment will require participation in a series of pre-scheduled conference call meetings during March, April, and May. We anticipate the telephone time should not exceed 12 hours on conference calls and 4 to 6 hours reading committee materials during a six-week time period. All candidate interviews will be conducted via telephone conference calls.
