

Sample Icebreaker Questions

Choose one or more of the following questions to get people talking to each other

.....

Instructions: Choose the first person you see and ask them one of these questions. Ask the second person you see any one of these DIFFERENT questions. Write down the names of the person who answered each question by the question itself.

What was the happiest moment of your life?

Who was your very first date with and what was it like?

What is the greatest compliment you've ever received?

What is the hardest thing you have ever done?

What is a typical Tuesday in your life like?

What is one gift you will never forget?

What is the one thing you most enjoy in your spare time?

What is your favorite time of day?

What is one thing you would like your obituary to say about you?

What is one of your strengths and one of your weaknesses?

What is your favorite spot in your home or yard?

What is your favorite comic strip?

What would people be surprised to find out about you?