Chrysztyna Rowek
Lighthouse Cove Property
Management Owner/Broker
Silverdale, WA

Chrysztyna Rowek MPM ® RMP ® started in the property management business literally at the bottom, cleaning the rentals for Lighthouse Cove Property Management, starting in 2002.

In 2006, she started working in the front office, as a receptionist/assistant property manager while she studied for her real estate exam.

She proceeded to buy Lighthouse Cove in July of 2007 and Two years to the date that she purchased that company, she bought the property management book of business from Strategy Real Estate, Inc, adding approximately 150 single family and small multi plex units to her portfolio.

In 2015 she started an in-house maintenance company named Athena Property Services.

In 2017 she purchased a third property management company. How that went...well...that's a class all by itself...

Today, almost 11 years later Lighthouse Cove manages over 450 properties, throughout Kitsap, Mason and Pierce Counties in Western Washington State. Her office is set up as a portfolio/departmental hybrid and she employs 6 full time employees

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

This year there are several proposed bills we are watching at the state level. Here are a few that we are keeping an eye on.

SB - 18 Skinner would provide a legal aide fund for tenants facing eviction or displacement.

SB 48 - Wiener would create a "right to shelter" for individuals living on the streets.

AB 53 - Jones-Sawyer and Bonta would prohibit an owner from inquiring about or requiring an applicant to disclose a criminal background prior to the completion of the initial application assessment.

Congratulations to the SERVPRO of SW San Jose
Affiliate of 2018!

SB 329 - Mitchell would define public assistance and housing subsidies as a verifiable "source of income" for voucher holders under the Section 8 program.

In April, the City of San Jose will be considering whether or not to require property owners to be considered Section 8 voucher holders.

The Housing Authority has implemented new owner friendly policies and procedures! They will be giving a presentation on March 14th to owners and property managers on what they are doing to improve and better serve participant owners of the Section 8 program.

Big Election News In Housing

Proposition 10 was easily defeated by a wide margin. If passed the Costa Hawkins ruling would have been reversed. This would have allowed a city to add single-family homes and new housing developments to their rent control ordinance. It's clear the voters want more housing not more regulations.

Another Proposition we were watching closely was Proposition 5 which was defeated.

Proposition 5 would have allowed seniors and disabled homeowners to take a portion of their lowered property tax base with them if they moved anywhere in the state.

Proposition 1 was a bond measure for affordable housing and veteran housing.

Proposition 2 was a bond measure for housing the mentally ill. Both measures passed.
