- Change to Lead Renovation, Repair, and Painting (RRP) rule for EPA Lead Based Paint.
- The RRP rule establishes training, certification, information distribution, and work practice requirements for firms who “perform, offer, or claim to perform” renovations, repair, and painting projects that disturb lead-based paint in homes...built before 1978.

your state EPA

- EPA changes it mind and says yes, PMC needs to be certified.
- EPA plans to hold both the PMCs and the contractors they hire responsible for compliance both entities performed or offered to perform renovations
